Index to Volume LXVII

(2005–2006)

Page numbers in italics indicate illustrations. Roman numerals identify the issue (I = Autumn; II = Winter; III = Spring).

ACLU. See American Civil Liberties Union

Allen, Francis H., edits 1906 edition of Henry D. Thoreau's Journal, III:644–48

Allen, William Temple, sketch of Nassau Hall, II:481

American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU): activities outside of courts, III:530, 531, 534; begins to win free speech cases, III:542–43; early years, III:527–51; and popular constitutionalism, III:526–27, 530–31, 546–50; shift toward use of courts, III:534–41, 543–46, 550

American Indian Chicago Conference (AICC): addresses domestic colonialism, II:411–13, 417; "Declaration of Indian Purpose," II:415–16

American literature, as taught at Princeton University, I:125–34

American Union against Militarism (AUAM): emphasis on constitutionalism outside of courts, III:528; founding of, III:527; members' resistance to court-based activities, III:538

Apache playing cards, I: plate 3

Arenas, Reinaldo, I:91; Before Night Falls, I:86, 93–94; correspondence with Severo Sarduy, I:89–90, 92; description of Sarduy in Before Night Falls, I:87–89, 93

Aron, Stephen, "The Western Man in the Eastern Parlor: Alfred Bush and the Princeton Collections of Western Americana," II:221–24

Association on American Indian Affairs (AAIA): and Cold War ideology, II:403, 405–7, 408–9; and concept of civil rights, II:370, 390, 391, 407; early years, II:370–71; internal debate over termination, organizational direction, II:368–69, 374, 376–80, 383–86, 387–89, 390–91, 398, 415; logo, II:367; relationship with Bureau of Indian Affairs, II:374, 377, 381–82, 407–8; relationship with National Congress of American Indians, II:387–89, 390, 391; recruitment of Native American members, II:389–90, 391; and rise of Native American nationalism, II:417–19; stages in organization's history, II:366–70; and taint of paternalism, II:410–11, 413; urges application of federal Point IV development program to Native Americans, II:399–404, 402, 406–7, 410, 415. See also Cohen, Felix; La Farge, Oliver; Madigan, LaVerne

"The Association on American Indian Affairs and the Struggle for Native American Rights, 1948–1955," by Paul C. Rosier, II:366–91

"Aunt Judy's Magazine and the Uses of Collaboration," by U. C. Knoepflmacher, I:146–55

Baldwin, Roger, III:527, 528, 529, 532, 533, 539, 541, 544, 545; advocates court-based tactics for ACLU, III:540, 548

Beerbohm, Max, "Mirror of the Past," I:47; composition of, I:45–46
Before Night Falls (Arenas), I:86–94
Belcher, Jonathan, gift of books to the College of New Jersey, I:9–10
Bernard Geis and Associates, publication and marketing of The Lord Won't Mind (Merrick), III:611–12, 614–18, 621–22
Bingen, Hildegaard von, Saint, III:672
Binney & Ronaldson (early American type foundry), I:199–200
Blake, William, books and prints by, donated by Grace Lambert, I:16n.28, 181–82, plate 4, III:521
book history: as an academic subject, I:49–50, 53, III:672–73; and library collection development, I:52–53, 57–59
Bradshaigh, Lady Dorothy, Friends purchase her annotated copy of Clarissa, I:18, 19
brand books, II:237, 238, 251; from Italy, 238–39, 239; from Spain and its colonies, II:240, 241, 242, 243; from the United States, II:240, 244–51, 245, 247, 249, 250
"Brand Books in the Princeton Collections of Western Americana," by William S. Reese, II:237–51
"Bringing Gifts to the Library: The 75th Anniversary of the Friends of the Princeton University Library," by Patricia H. Marks, I:9–35
Brontë family: and juvenile collaborations, I:153; mother figures in daughters' novels, I:154–55
Brooks, William (Stumanu): death and controversy over his flattened head, II:267–70; observations on white society, II:260–62; orphaned and sent to mission settlement, II:256, 258–59; portrait of, II:254–56, 257; visits East Coast as missionary's protégé, II:252, 259–62
Browne, Sir Thomas, III:594; annotates copy of 1642 edition of Religio Medici, III:600, 602, 605–9, 606, 607; composition and dissemination of manuscript Religio Medici, III:598–600; popularity of his works, III:595–96; reasons for revising Religio Medici, III:596–97, 600, 602–8, 609–10; and unauthorized printing of Religio Medici, III:596–97, 600, 601
Bush, Alfred L.: "Cover Note," II:497–98; and development of the Princeton Collections of Western Americana, II:221–24, 237–38; introduction to "A Witness at Wounded Knee, 1973," by Owen Luck, II:330–31; "Otterskins, Eagle Feathers, and Native American Alumni at Princeton," II:420–34
Butler, Howard Russell, persuades Andrew Carnegie to build Lake Carnegie, III:661–63
Butler, Lady Elizabeth, sketch from her travel journal, II:467

Canyon de Chelly: cliff dwellings, II:273, 276, 277–78, 279, 280, 282, 283, 287; historical background of, II:277–79, 281
Carnegie, Andrew: at Lake Carnegie dedication ceremony, III:664; persuaded to finance construction of Lake Carnegie, III:662–63; philosophy of philanthropy, III:660 Cavafy, C. P., methods of collecting and publishing his poetry, I:140–45, 142
"The Cavafy Rare Book Collection in Firestone Library," by Edmund Keeley, I:140–45
Charles Scribner Collection of Charles Lamb, III:519
children's literature. See Russian children's literature; Soviet children's literature
Cobb, Daniel M., "Indian Politics in Cold War America: Parallel and Contradiction," II:392–419

coelacanth, fossil unearthed in Firestone Library excavations, I:156, 157
Cohen, Felix, II:373; advocacy for Native Americans' rights, III:375; attitude toward termination, II:371–74, 378–79; criticism of Bureau of Indian Affairs, II:378, 380–83; death and legacy, II:386–87
"Collecting and Researching in the History of Books," by Robert Darnton, with Stephen Ferguson, I:49–59
Communist Party, in America, I:70, 72, 73, 78
Conder, Thomas, "York Town and Gloucester Point, as Besieged by the Allied Army," II:456
Conkwright, P. J., I:178; and development of Monticello typeface, I:200–201
Conti, Brooke, "Sir Thomas Browne's Annotated Copy of His 1642 Religio Medici," III:595–610
Coomaraswamy, Ananda K., photographic portrait by Mortimer Offner, II:459
Cowper, William, Neilson Campbell Hannay collection of, acquired for Princeton, I:183–85, 184
Creesy, Charles L., "Cover Note," I:199–202
Curschmann, Michael, "An Unusual Medieval Manuscript and Its History at Princeton (Garrett MS. 133)," I:39–43
Curtis, Edward S., and production of The North American Indian, II:314–29 passim

Danson, Lawrence, "Max Beerbohm in the Robert H. Taylor Collection," I:44–48
Darnton, Robert, "Collecting and Researching in the History of Books," with Stephen Ferguson, I:49–59; "Cover Note," with students of History 420, III:673–74
Delaware (Lenape) Indians: otterskin bookbinding created by, II:421–24, 423; relations with George Morgan of Princeton, II:427–29; subjects of missionary work in New Jersey, II:421–22
Description de l'Égypte (1809–1814), history of and origins of Princeton's copy, I:102–5, 104
"Designated Reader," by John McPhee, I:157–60
DiBattista, Maria, "Mortimer and Company: Virginia Woolf, Nancy Mitford, and Other Moderns in the Raymond Mortimer Collection," I:60–67

eagle feather headdress (Sioux): becomes symbol of all Native Americans, II:424–26; example presented to Fred B. Fitch, II:425, 426, 426–27
"The Early ACLU and the Decision to Litigate," by Emily Zackin, III:526–51
Eastman, Crystal, III:527, 532, 544
Edwards, Jonathan, II:420–22
Eisenhower, Dwight D.: and John Foster Dulles, I:116, 120; and possible Chinese invasion of Taiwan, I:118, 122; and presidential leadership, I:115–20, 122–23
Elmer Adler Undergraduate Book Collecting Prize, I:29–31; award for 2006, III:627–34
"The Enigma of Reading," by Rahul Mehra, III:628–34
Ewing, Juliana Horatia, I:148, 154; collaborates on Aunt Judy's Magazine, I:146–48; Six to Sixteen, I:150, 151, 152
exhibitions, in the Princeton University Library, I:14–15

Fabian, Ann, "A Native Among the Headhunters," II:252–70
Ferguson, Stephen, afterword to "Collecting and Researching in the

Ferguson, Stephen (cont.)
History of Books," by Robert Darnton, I:56–59
"Finding Early America at Princeton," by William Howarth, I:125–34
Fleming, John V., "The Truth about Jan Valtin," I:68–80
Flower, Harriet I., "Using Ancient Coins and Rare Books in the Undergraduate Classroom at Princeton University," I:81–85
"The Focus of the Gyre," by Theodore Ziolkowski, I:194–98
Friends of the Princeton University Library: annual meeting in new Firestone Library, III:520; book collectors group, I:31–32; exhibitions sponsored by, I:14–15; first membership dinner, III:515; gifts of books and manuscripts, I:12–13, 27–28; history of the organization, I:9–35; library projects funded by, I:20; mission of, I:9; outgoing officers, October 2005, II:494; programs of, I:29–33; publications of, I:18–19, 23–28, 33, 48, III:525; research grant program, I:22–23, III:524; special purchases enabled by, I:18, plate 1, II:435, 440; timeline of first 75 years, III:515–25, 516–17
"Full Circle: From Disintegration to Revitalization of Otterskin Bag Use in Great Lakes Tribal Culture," by Anton Treuer, II:359–65

Gale, Zona, III:536–39
Gallo, Rubén, "Reinaldo Arenas and Severo Sarduy: Notes toward a History of a Friendship Gone Awry," I:86–94
Gardner, Alexander, volumes of Civil War photographs, II:435–38, 439
"Gardner's Photographic Sketch Book of the War," by Julie Mellby, II:435–40
Garrett MS. 130, I:42; composition of, I:39, 40, 41; critical editions of, I:40–41; purchased by Robert Garrett, I:40
Gattilusio, Dorino, gold ducat of, II:479
Gatty, Juliana Horatia. See Ewing, Juliana Horatia
Gatty, Margaret, I:147, 153, 154; publisher of Aunt Judy's Magazine, I:146–48
Gidley, Mick, "The Making of Edward S. Curtis's The North American Indian," II:314–29
Gillispie, Charles C., "The Rare Book Room: A Rare Privilege," I:95–106
Gleason, Herbert Wendell, photographs of Concord scenes related to Henry D. Thoreau writings, III:650–51, 651, 652
Golden Legend, The, printed by Wynkyn de Worde and Richard Pynson, II:482–84, 484
Gould, James and Carol, "The Hope of Our College: Theodorick Bland Pryor," I:107–13
Green Hills of Africa (Hemingway), I:166–75 passim
Greenstein, Fred I., "Pursuing Eisenhower's Hidden Hand in the Princeton Archives," I:114–24

Handel Festival medal from the Crystal Palace, III:522
Hardy, Florence, correspondence with Dr. Caleb Saleeby, I:135, 138–39
Hardy, Thomas, I:136; correspondence with Dr. Caleb Saleeby, I:135, 137–38
"The Hardy-Saleeby Letters," by Samuel Hynes, I:135–39
Hemingway, Ernest: Green Hills of Africa parodied by James Thurber illustrations, I:166, 168–75; Thurber parodies his writing style, I:168
"The Hope of Our College: Theodorick Bland Pryor," by James and Carol Gould, I:107–13
Houghton Mifflin Company, publishes Henry D. Thoreau's Journal (1906), III:635, 637, 642–51

Howarth, William, "Finding Early America at Princeton," I:125–34; "The Journal of Henry D. Thoreau, 1906–2006," III:635–58
Husband, William B., "Miraculous Horses: Reading the Russian Revolution through Soviet Children's Literature," III:553–93
Hyde, Mary, I:177: elected to Friends Council, I:16; establishes prize in honor of Donald Hyde, I:17; gifts to the Library, I:17, 60
Hynes, Samuel, "The Hardy-Saleeby Letters," I:135–39

"Indian Politics in Cold War America: Parallel and Contradiction," by Daniel M. Cobb, II:392–419

"James Thurber on Ernest Hemingway," by Thomas P. Roche, I:166–75
Jefferson, Thomas: Notes on the State of Virginia, I:161–65; role of, in early American typefounding industry, I:199–200
"The Journal of Henry D. Thoreau, 1906–2006," by William Howarth, III:635–58
journal writing: as practiced by Henry D. Thoreau, III:638–39, 641, 652; as record of student learning, III:657–58
Julius Caesar, early printed works of, I:83–85
Junius S. Morgan Collection of Virgil, I:195–96, 197

Keeley, Edmund, "The Cavafy Rare Book Collection in Firestone Library," I:140–45
Kienbusch, Otto von, Angling Collection, I:159
Kipling, Rudyard: autobiographical writings, I:149, 153; influence on him of Six to Sixteen (J. H. Ewing), I:150, 152
Knoepflmacher, U. C., "Aunt Judy's Magazine and the Uses of Collaboration," I:146–55
Krebs, Richard Julius Herman (pseud. Jan Valtin), I:71, 79; anticommunist articles and testimony, I:77, 79; archive in Princeton University Library, I:69; controversy over his autobiography, I:69–74; credibility attacked by American Communist Party, I:70, 72, 73, 75–76; other literary efforts, I:76–77; service in U.S. infantry, I:76–77
Krock, Arthur, I:121; notes from off-the-record meetings with public figures, I:120, 122–23

La Farge, Oliver, II:372, 384, 397, 414, 416, 418; changing attitude toward termination, II:371, 374, 376–77, 379–80, 383–85, 405–6, 407, 415; president of Association on American Indian Affairs, II:366–68, 369, 370–71, 376–77, 396. See also Association on American Indian Affairs
"A Lake, a Cake, and a Compliment? Woodrow Wilson's Fund-raising Efforts with Andrew Carnegie," by Daniel J. Linke, III:659–66
Lake Carnegie (Princeton), III:665; construction and costs of, III:662, 662–63; dedication ceremony, III:664
Lamb, Charles, The Adventures of Ulysses, III:519
Lambert, Grace: elected to Friends Council, I:16; gifts to the Library, I:16n.28, 181–82, plates 3, 4, III:521
Latomus, Sigismundus, Schön newes Modelbuch . . . , II:453 left-wing writing/writers in interwar America, I:72, 74–75, 78
Lewis, W. Arthur, I:191; collection of papers at Princeton, I:189, 192–93; life and accomplishments, I:189–93
Linke, Daniel J., "A Lake, a Cake, and a Compliment? Woodrow Wilson's

Linke, Daniel J. (cont.)
Fund-raising Efforts with Andrew Carnegie," III:659–66
Livermore, Mary A., I:186; collection of papers at Princeton, I:187–88
Luck, Owen, "A Witness at Wounded Knee, 1973," II:331–57

Mac Murray, John V. A., photograph inscribed to him by a Chinese official, II:487
Madigan, LaVerne, II:366, 398, 404, 416, 418; on democracy and Native Americans, II:406; urges application of federal Point IV development program to Native Americans, II:400–401, 403
"The Making of Edward S. Curtis's The North American Indian," by Mick Gidley, II:314–29
Marks, Patricia H., "Bringing Gifts to the Library: The 75th Anniversary of the Friends of the Princeton University Library," I:9–35
"The Mary Livermore Collection," by Christine Stansell, I:187–88
"Max Beerbohm in the Robert H. Taylor Collection," by Lawrence Danson, I:44–48
McCormick, Cyrus Hall, gifts to Princeton University Library, I:165
McCormick, Howard Fowler, collection of aeronautica in the Princeton University Library, I:102, plate 2
McKernon, Helen W., bequest from supports Friends projects, I:20, 22
McPhee, John, "Designated Reader," I:157–60
Mehra, Rahul, "The Enigma of Reading," III:628–34
Mellby, Julie, "Gardner's Photographic Sketch Book of the War," II:435–40
Merrick, Gordon, III:613; early career, III:612–14; and marketing of later novels, III:622–24; his place in the history of gay fiction, III:622–23, 624–26; popularity of his novels with general audiences, III:611–12, 617, 620–22; and publication, marketing, and reception of The Lord Won't Mind, III:611–12, 614–22, 619
Mesoamerican civilizations (Postclassic), II:225, 227; calendrical system and signs, II:228–34, 230, 231, 233, 235; categories of knowledge preserved in codices, II:234–36; tradition of engraving animal bones, II:225, 226, 236
Milberg, Leonard L., gifts to the Princeton University Library, I:27–28, 196
"Miraculous Horses: Reading the Russian Revolution through Soviet Children's Literature," by William B. Husband, III:553–93
Mitford, Nancy, correspondence with Raymond Mortimer, I:61–62, 65, 65–66 modernist literature and authors, I:60, 61, 62, 67
Montgolfier balloon, I:101–2, plate 2
Monticello typeface, history of, I:199–202
Morrison, Toni, lecture inaugurates Friends' 75th anniversary, I:30
Mortimer, Raymond, I:61, 62; collection of correspondence, I:60–67
"Mortimer and Company: Virginia Woolf, Nancy Mitford, and Other Moderns in the Raymond Mortimer Collection," by Maria DiBattista, I:60–67
Morton, Samuel George: Crania Americana, II:252, 253, 264; fascination with flattened skulls, 252–53, 262
"My Life at the Library," by Charles Ryskamp, I:176–85

National Civil Liberties Bureau (NCLB): activities during World War I, III:528, 531–34; attitude toward courts, III:533; defends free speech in courts, III:541–42; reorganized as American Civil Liberties Union, III:528

National Congress of American Indians (NCAI): Emergency Conference against termination, II:387; relationship with Association on American Indian Affairs, II:387–88, 390, 391, 403, 414–15; warns against confusing Indian rights with civil rights movement, II:413–14
National Indian Youth Council (NIYC), and rise of Native American nationalism, II:417–18 national literatures, and book collecting, I:57, 58
Native Americans: and civil rights movement, II:370, 392–93, 406–7, 413–14, 416; and government assimilation policies, II:363–65, 368; medicine bags and ceremonies, II:341, 345–46, 358, 359–63, 360–61, 364–65; petroglyphs, II:497–98; portraits of, II:254–56, 257, 296–313, 297–99, 301–3, 305, 307, 310–11, 321, 323, 325, 333, 336, 338, 341–44, 353, 356; students at Princeton, II:429–33, 431–32, 434; and westward expansion, II:288; See also American Indian Chicago Conference; Association on American Indian Affairs; Brooks, William; Delaware (Lenape) Indians; National Congress of American Indians; National Indian Youth Council; North American Indian, The; Point IV program; Sioux Revolt of 1862; termination; Wounded Knee
"A Native Among the Headhunters," by Ann Fabian, II:252–70
Neilson Campbell Hannay Collection of William Cowper, I:184; acquired for Princeton, I:183, 185
North American Indian, The (Curtis): manipulation of images in proof, II:322–24, 323, 325; and the nature of representation, II:328–29; production background, II:314–18; revised proof of two volumes, II:318–27, 321, 323, 325, 327
Notes on the State of Virginia (Jefferson): composition of, I:161–63; inscription in Princeton's copy, I:163, 164, 165; printings of, I:163;
"Notes on the State of Virginia: Thomas Jefferson's 'Mysterious Obligation,'" by Barbara Oberg, I:161–65

Oberg, Barbara, "Notes on the State of Virginia: Thomas Jefferson's 'Mysterious Obligation,'" I:161–65
Ortiz, Joseph M., "The World Won't Mind: The Accidental Success of Gordon Merrick," III:611–26
O'Sullivan, Timothy: background, II:283–84; photographs of White House ruins, II:273, 277, 282–83, 283, 287–88
"Otterskins, Eagle Feathers, and Native American Alumni at Princeton," Alfred L. Bush, II:420–34

Peter Lewis Library, designed by Frank Gehry, I:11, 160
"Photographs of the 1862 Sioux Revolt: From National Sensation to Ethnographic Documentation," by Heather Shannon, II:290–313 photography: and the American West, II:288; early techniques, II:272–75; and marketing of images, II:295–313; stereographs, II:273, 275–76, 293–94, 301–3, 305, 307; and U.S. geographical and geological surveys, II:281–83, 283, 284, 285–87, 309–12, 310–11. See also North American Indian, The; O'Sullivan, Timothy phrenology, in early America, II:268–70
Pohl, John M. D., "A Zapotec Carved Bone," with Javier Urcid Serrano, II:225–36
Point IV program: ideology of, as applied to Native Americans, II:399–

Point IV program (cont.)
408; underlies declaration of American Indian Chicago Conference, II:416; U.S. policy for international development, II:399, 409–10 popular constitutionalism: and the ACLU, III:526, 544, 546–50; present-day theories of, III:546–47. 550–51
Princeton Collections of Western Americana. See Winter 2006 issue (vol. 67, no. 2)
Princeton Mesoamerican Manuscripts no. 2, II:225, 226, 228, 231, 236; its calendrical day signs, II:229, 230–32, 231, 234
Princeton University, Department of English, and teaching of American literature, I:125–34
Princeton University Library: collections of twentieth-century public policy papers, I:123–24; early days of Firestone Library, I:95–97, 157; Geosciences Library, I:159–60; history and growth, I:10–12, 177–78; holdings in German literature, I:195; houses Textual Center for The Writings of Henry D. Thoreau, III:655, 655–56; inscribed and annotated rare books, I:98–99, 164, 165, 166–75; Manuscripts Room, I:96; Numismatic Collection, as a teaching tool, I:81–83; open stacks, I:97–98, 157–58; and The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, I:165; Scribner Room, I:179–81
Princeton University Library Chronicle, I:23–27, III:525
Print Club (Princeton University), print-lending operation, III:518
Progressive movement, influences early leaders and activities of the ACLU, III:527, 528, 531–32, 533, 539
Pryor, Theodorick Bland, life and career at Princeton, I:107–13, 111 publishing in pre-Revolutionary France, I:50–53; clandestine best-sellers, I:54, 55, 56, 59
"Pursuing Eisenhower's Hidden Hand in the Princeton Archives," by Fred I. Greenstein, I:114–24

"The Rare Book Room: A Rare Privilege," by Charles C. Gillispie, I:95–106
Reed, David A., fund in honor of, for purchase of rare books, I:21
Reese, William S., "Brand Books in the Princeton Collections of Western Americana," II:237–51
"Reinaldo Arenas and Severo Sarduy: Notes toward a History of a Friendship Gone Awry," by Rubén Gallo, I:86–94
Religio Medici (Browne), III:595–610
Roche, Thomas P., "James Thurber on Ernest Hemingway," I:166–75
Rosier, Paul C., "The Association on American Indian Affairs and the Struggle for Native American Rights, 1948–1955," II:366–91
Russian children's literature before 1917, III:557–60
Ryskamp, Charles, "My Life at the Library," I:176–85

Saleeby, Dr. Caleb, correspondence with Thomas and Florence Hardy, I:135–39
Sandweiss, Martha A., "A Stereoscopic View of the American West," II:271–89
Sarduy, Severo: correspondence with Reinaldo Arenas, I:89–90, 92–93; described by Arenas in Before Night Falls, I:87–89, 93; as exiled Cuban writer, I:86–87
Seferis, George, hand-drawn logo, I:145
Shannon, Heather, "Photographs of the 1862 Sioux Revolt: From National Sensation to Ethnographic Documentation," II:290–313
Shenton, Edward, illustrations to Green

Hills of Africa (Hemingway) parodied by James Thurber, I:166–75
Sioux Revolt of 1862: adaptation and reuse of photographs concerning, II:295, 295–313, 298–99, 301–3, 307, 310–11; background and actions of, II:291–93; early photographs documenting, II:293, 293–95, 294; photographs of Sioux participants and captives, 297, 299, 301–3, 305, 307, 310–11
"Sir Thomas Browne's Annotated Copy of His 1642 Religio Medici," by Brooke Conti, III:595–610 skull collecting, in early America, II:252–53, 262–66 slave ship, account book of, I:131
Socialist Realism: defined by Joseph Stalin and others, III:585; in Soviet children's literature, III:585–92
Soviet children's literature, III:552, 563, 564, 571, 579, 580–81, 588, 590, 593; and the creation of the new Soviet child, III:555–56, 557, 561–62, 565, 567, 568, 569–73, 575, 576–78, 582–83, 586–87, 589, 592; during the early years of Socialist Realism, III:585–92; during the early years of Stalinism (the Cultural Revolution), III:574–84; during the immediate postrevolutionary period, III:557, 560–65; during the New Economic Policy, III:565, 567–74; state monopoly on publication of, III:553n.1, 574, 575–76
Stalin, Joseph, III:574, 584, 593; defines Socialist Realism, III:585
Stansell, Christine, "The Mary Livermore Collection," I:187–88
"A Stereoscopic View of the American West," by Martha A. Sandweiss, II:271–89
Stumanu. See Brooks, William

Taylor, Robert H., I:177, 178; collection of Max Beerbohm, I:44–45; Henry D. Thoreau manuscripts in his collection, III:637, 640; library donated to Princeton, I:13–14, 48, 166; role in acquisition of the Hannay collection of William Cowper, I:183; Sir Thomas Browne's annotated Religio Medici in his collection, III:513, 598, 602, 605–9, 606, 607 termination: and Cold War ideology, II:394–96, 395, 403, 405–7; congressional attempts to legislate, II:386, 387, 393; U.S. government policy described, II:368–69, 393–94; U.S. government retreat from, II:407–8
Thomson, Charles, letters of, purchased and published with Friends funds, I:18
Thoreau, Henry D., III:636; composition of his Journal, III:638–39, 641, 642, 652; critical reception of published Journal, III:652–54; dispersal of his manuscript Journal, III:641, 642, 643, 648, 650, 654; as environmental writer, III:635, 637; leaf from his essay "Autumnal Tints," III:648, 649; leaf from his "Moonlight" lecture, III:640; 1906 publication of his Journal, III:637, 642–50; Princeton edition of his Writings, III:654–56
Thurber, James: adds illustrations to his copy of Green Hills of Africa (Hemingway), I:166, 168–75, 170–71, 173, 174, 175; parodies Ernest Hemingway's writing, I:168
Tiberius, Emperor, coinage of, I:81–82
Tignor, Robert L., "The W. Arthur Lewis Papers," I:189–93
Torrey, Bradford: assessment of Henry D. Thoreau as writer, III:652; edits 1906 edition of Thoreau's Journal, III:643–47
Trainer, Karin A., "Introduction," III:513–14
Treuer, Anton, "Full Circle: From Disintegration to Revitalization of

Treuer, Anton (cont.)
Otterskin Bag Use in Great Lakes Tribal Culture," II:359–65
"The Truth about Jan Valtin," by John V. Fleming, I:68–80
Tsukioka, Yoshitoshi, Portrait of a Geisha Seated for Her Photograph, II:449

"An Unusual Medieval Manuscript and Its History at Princeton (Garrett MS. 133)," by Michael Curschmann, I:39–43
Urcid Serrano, Javier, "A Zapotec Carved Bone," with John M. D. Pohl, II:225–36
"Using Ancient Coins and Rare Books in the Undergraduate Classroom at Princeton University," by Harriet I. Flower, I:81–85

Valtin, Jan. See Krebs, Richard

Wald, Lillian, III:527, 538
"The W. Arthur Lewis Papers," by Robert L. Tignor, I:189–93
"The Western Man in the Eastern Parlor: Alfred Bush and the Princeton Collections of Western Americana," by Stephen Aron, II:221–24
Wilson, Woodrow: at Lake Carnegie dedication ceremony, III:664; solicits funds for Princeton University from Andrew Carnegie, III:659–61, 663–66
"A Witness at Wounded Knee, 1973," by Owen Luck, II:331–57
Woolf, Virginia: correspondence with Raymond Mortimer, I:60, 63–64, 66–67; private opinion of Mortimer, I:64–65
"The World Won't Mind: The Accidental Success of Gordon Merrick," by Joseph M. Ortiz, III:611–26
Wounded Knee: massacre at, 1890, II:330–31; siege of, 1973, II:331–57, 333, 335–38, 341–44, 351, 353, 356

Zackin, Emily, "The Early ACLU and the Decision to Litigate," III:526–51
"A Zapotec Carved Bone," by John M. D. Pohl and Javier Urcid Serrano, II:225–36
Zatta, Antonio, Atlante Novissimo . . . , I:plate 1
Ziolkowski, Theodore, "The Focus of the Gyre," I:194–98